Hi all: I have been carrying $7183.86 of hotel charges for the Homelessness Forum on my credit card but now need to be reimbursed. Bill is attached.

In the end we secured another $500 from Streetplus but nothing from any other BIDS or IDA (see below).

Thus

Income

Reg fees:	$2800
SP sponsorship	3000
Total Income	5800

Expense $7184

Expense over Income $1384

Thus this cost CDA over $1300 to put on. There were many benefits including I think at least one new member. That said, this should have been at least break even and behooves us going forward to make sure we are charging sufficiently for such event – always, always need a contingency for unanticipated expenses (as I tried to include)....

Kent if you can send me a check at earliest convenience I'd greatly appreciate it.

Thx Lauren

FYI in thinking about this further I am going to ask IDA to make up the difference of about $300 for the fees they took out.

Therefore this would be the accounting so far:

Expenses $7200

Fixed Income

Registration 2800

Streetplus 2500

Subtotal 5300

Shortfall $1900

Additional Potential Income

Speaker meals (45 X 5) 225

Streetplus 1000

IDA 300

Subtotal $1525

Remaining shortfall 375

Contributions from BIDs $375

Jessica, I am working with Lauren to reconcile our final expenses.

Because we had so many people, and we ended up having to use AV and their projector, our expenses exceeded revenue by 1200.

So, we are thinking of going out to the larger BIDS to help divide up the shortfall...but I wanted to check with you to see if Street Plus might be willing to help a bit more, and then we could fill in the gap.

They have already been super generous. We probably should have priced this more around $50/person.

Thoughts?
